

The Morgan Library & Museum

Spring Family Fair 2014

Sunday, April 27, 2-5 pm

The exhibition The Little Prince: A New York Story is an opportunity to dedicate our Spring Family Fair to the beloved character, whose tale was written and illustrated in New York City by French author Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. Activities include viewing an animated short film (The Little Prince/Will Vinton), composing a large mural made of planets, and trying on fun costumes. The Ben Jam troupe will bring to life the little prince, the fox, and the rose and invite families to follow the mysterious little boy on his magical journey through outer space and planet Earth. Appropriate for ages 6–12.

Tickets: $8, $6 for Members,
$2 for Children

Lead funding for The Little Prince: A New York Story is provided by Barbara and James Runde and by The Florence Gould Foundation. Generous support is also provided by Air France, Liz and Rod Berens, and the Caroline Macomber Fund, with additional assistance from Houghton Mifflin Harcourt.

The Morgan's public programs are generously supported in part by The Alice Tully Fund for Art and Music, the William Randolph Hearst Fund for Educational Programs, and by the Stavros S. Niarchos Foundation Fund for Education and Technology Programs and the Herbert and Ann Lucas Fund. Family programs are generously sponsored by Great Circle Foundation, Inc. The programs of The Morgan The programs of The Morgan Library & Museum are made possible with public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council, and by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

Schedule of Events

2–5 PM

The Ben Jam Presents: The New Adventures of The Little Prince

Would you go on a journey with the Little Prince? Would you travel to new places with him and meet new faces? Or would you rather choose your own adventure? What ever the case may be, the Ben Jam troupe invites you to meet a little prince, a fox, a snake, a pilot, a rose, and a few odd grown-ups, and make yourself part of a whole new wondrous story.

2–5 PM

Craft a Cosmos

With glitter, rhinestones, feathers, pom-poms, tulle, and more trimmings galore, educator LISA LIBICKI will lead children in the creation of planets, asteroids and stars to display on a mural. Join us for a unique cosmic experience.

2–5 PM

Literary Photoshoot

The Rose, the Little Prince, and the Fox: these are the latest additions to our ever growing collection of beautiful historical and literary costumes, designed and handmade by artist and educator PAM KOEHLER. For the time of the photoshoot you will become a famous character in a book!

2:15 & 3:15 PM

The Little Prince (A Claymation Movie)

In this captivating 30-minute claymation movie by Will Vinton, we follow the eternally young prince through a fantasy universe as he seeks “matters of consequences”. The production remains faithful to the spirit of innocence and sense of wonderment that mark Saint-Exupéry’s book. (billy budd films)

2:30 PM, 3 PM, 3:30 PM, 4 PM, & 4:30 PM.

Quiet Time: Reading in The Library

Tired of planet and star hopping? Do you need to slow down? Join Morgan Docents WALTER SREBNICK and CATHLEEN McLoughlin for some quiet reading of The Little Prince in Mr. Morgan’s Library.

Antoine de Saint-Exupéry (1900-1944), The Little Prince. New York: Reynal & Hitchcock, 1943